

Outside Cooke City we dug this pit at 9800 feet on Scotch Bonnet (Dec 9). It broke on a layer of facets that formed a few days before Thanksgiving and is now buried under 1.5' of snow. The recent storm made this layer reactive. Photo: GNFAC

Advisory Region
Cooke City
Longitude
-109.95W
Latitude
45.06N

Forecast link: GNFAC Avalanche Forecast for Thu Dec 12, 2019
Cooke City, 2019-12-09