

Blackmore

Date

Sat, 02/06/2021 - 13:00

Activity

Skiing

Skied off the shoulder of Blackmore today. No recent avalanche activity was evident, not even sloughs down the face. New snow was right side up and well bonded. Was still seeing propagation in pits in the low to mid 20s range though. Generally breaking on a layer of faceted snow sitting below a melt freeze crust about 2ft down.

Region

Northern Gallatin