

Avalanche Crossing North Bowl Road, Bridger Bowl

A small avalanche hitting the North Bowl Road.

Bridger Bowl is closed for the season and the ski patrol is on summer vacation. This means no one is mitigating avalanche hazards or closing terrain as conditions change, so skiers and riders have to make avalanche-related decisions for themselves and be prepared for partner rescue. It also means that familiar routes such as North Bowl Road may become unsafe. Photo: GNFAC

Advisory Region

Bridger Range

Longitude

-110.92W

Latitude

45.82N

Bridger Range, 2021-04-07